Refer a Friend Competition

13. To be eligible to win the prizes, a current member of Sutherland Shire Libraries must refer a friend or family member to join Sutherland Shire Libraries during the competition period. The new member must finalise their membership in person at any of the eight library branches during this time and provide the name of the referrer. Both the referrer and new member will go in the draw to win.
14. Entrants need to join the library using the online form on the Sutherland Shire Libraries' website. This can be done at home or when visiting a Sutherland Shire Libraries branch to finalise their membership.

15. To go in the draw, participants must join the library, provide the name of their referrer and finalise their membership in person at one of Sutherland Shire Libraries' eight branches during the Competition Period. Participants can enter the competition more than once. Each friend or family member a library member refers will be considered an entry in the draw.

16. Sutherland Shire Libraries may require a potential winner to provide proof of age, residential address and identity before awarding the prize. Participants may be all ages.

17. There will be first prize: a Samsung Galaxy A9+, which will be awarded to the winner of the Competition. A second prize: $100 gift voucher for Best Little Bookshop in Town will be awarded to the for runner up.

18. Any junior who did not win either of the other prizes will go in the draw for a Reading Essentials pack.

The August 2024 Competition is being conducted by the Sutherland Shire Council - Library & Information Services. ABN: 52018204808.
